Welcome to worship. A special welcome to our visitors -- we are blessed to have you with us. Please sign the guest book in the Narthex, and come again!

All baptized and confirmed Christians who trust in their hearts that Jesus Christ is truly present in and with the bread and wine and through these gifts offers his forgiveness of sins and promise of eternal life are welcome to receive the Lord's Supper with us this morning.

Introduction to Today's Lessons

ISAIAH 40:21-31 The Judeans in exile have a reason to be hopeful; the One who will bring them to freedom is the God who created the world and gives strength to those who are weary.

1 CORINTHIANS 9:16-23 Paul continues his careful argument about the freedom of God's people. In Christ we are free, he says, not to injure one another, but to help. Using his own work as an example, Paul argues that we are not so much free FROM each other as free FOR each other

MARK 1:29-39 Everywhere Jesus goes, many people expect him to set them free from oppression. Everywhere he goes, he heals them, and sets them free. Disease, devils, and death are running for their lives. The forces that diminish human life are rendered powerless by Jesus.
